From the Paris Gazette, dated September 6.

Rome, August 12.

Letters from Venice inform us, that Cardinal Marco Delfino, a Venetian, died the 5th of this Month at the Seat of his Bishoprick of Brescia. He was in the 51st Year of his Age; and was made a Cardinal by Pope Innocent XII. in November 1699, at which time he was his Nuncio at the Court of France, an Employment that he discharg'd with great Ability and Magnificence. By his Death there is a 16th Vacancy in the Sacred College. The 4th a Courier arriv'd from Poland with Letters for the Envoy of King Augustus; since which several Congregations have been held to consider of the Affairs of that Country. His Holiness has been told, that the Election of King Stanislaus was carried against all Form, and by plain Force; Most of the Senators and Deputies having been constrain'd to own him for Fear of the King of Sweden. Endeavours have been us'd likewise to perswade his Holiness, that the Catholick Religion would receive great Prejudice by the Deposing of King Augustus; tho' what chiefly alienated the Hearts of the Poles from him, was the violent Suspicion they have of the Unfincerity of his Conversion; especially seeing his Son the Prince Electoral is carefully brought up in Lutheranism; and his Deputies in the Diet of the Empire have all along supported the Proteffant Interest, to the hindrance of the Execution of the Articles that favour the Catholicks, which the most Christian King caus'd to be inserted in the Treaty of Reswick. On these first Informations given the Pope of the Affair of the Election abovemention'd, a Courier is dispatch'd to the Nuncio in Poland with divers Orders, which in all Appearance will be difficult to be executed.

Warsaw, Aug. 8. The Commissioners of the Republick are drawing up the Pacta Conventa, which King Stanislaus is to swear to at his Coronation. The Deputies of his said Majesty and of the Republick, and the Ambassadors of the King of Sweden have begun to meet, to draw up the Articles of a perpetual Alliance between the two Kingdoms. Their first Conference was on the 5th instant in the Monastery of the Carmelites; and was spent in examining the Powers of the Plenipotentiaries. The 6th they proceeded actually to settle the Articles of the Treaty, which is to be concluded by the end of this Month, and then to be sign'd by the two Kings. The Palatinat of Witeps which is situate in the further part of Lithuania, has declar'd for King Stanislaus: Their Deputies have had Audience of him, and complimented him on his Accession to the Crown. Other Palatinats, who were Neuters, have declar'd for the Confederates. Several Troops of the Army of the Crown following their Example, have abandon'd King Augustus, and are come over to King Stanislaus, whose Forces are augmented to 9 or 10000 Men. The Generals Steinbock and Meyerfeld who were marching into Great Poland, to oppose the Passage of the Saxon Troops that are come from Germany, are separated. The first is following the King of Sweden, and the other continues his March against the Saxons, who are about Lissa in the Palatinat of Pofnania, on the Frontier of Silesia. A Tartarian Officer is arriv'd here, to give Notice that an Ambassador from the Kan is following him, with Instructions to offer Succours to the Republick and the King they have chosen, against the Muscovites and King Augustus. The Advices from Lemberg of the 30th of last Month say, that the 24th Prince Galiczen arriv'd in the Neighbourhood of that Place with 16000 Muscovites, 3000 Cossacks, and a Train of Artillery; and that he came into that Town the 25th and was treated by the Governour; whom in return he treated the 27th in his Camp. A few days after he must have joyn'd King Augustus, who is marching from Jaroslaw towards Javarow and Lemberg, and is follow'd by General Renschild, who will harra's him all he can in his March. The King of Sweden's Army march'd from the Neighbourhood of this Place in 3 Bodies, his Majesty led that in the middle, General Aldrestein that on the Right, and General Bond that on the Left, with which he burnt in his Way 60 Villages most of them belonging to the Marshal of the Confederacy of Sendomir. These 3 Bodies drew into one near Sendomir, and pass'd the Vistula over the Bridge General Renschild had caus'd to be made there; and the King of Sweden is advancing on in quest of King Augustus.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 30.

Hamburg, Aug. 26. Letters from Riga of the 14th of this Month tell us, that General Leeuwenhaupt, having sent the Muscovites he took Prisoners in the Action near Kruysberg to Dunemund; and the Son of Prince Wiefnowiski, with the 48 Pieces of Artillery, and the 40 Colours and Standards, taken in the same Action, to Riga; is march'd to attack Birsen: Mean time the old Prince Wiefnowiski, with the Muscovites, &c. that escap'd out of that Action, keeps in Livonia and ravages the open Country of that Province. The Czar of Muscovy, having left a strong Garrison in Dorpat, is march'd towards Nerva, taking with him the late Governour of Dorpat and those that were the chief Officers of that Garrison Prisoners.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 2.

Warsaw, August 14. The new King is preparing to set out from hence in a few days for Great Poland; and the Nobility that are of his Party are already gone before. 'Tis said his Design is, to make an Irruption into Saxony with 65 Troops of the Crown Army that are in his Interest; while the King of Sweden acts against King Augustus. We have receiv'd confirm'd Advice, that the King of Sweden has pass'd the Vistula near Sendomir and is march'd towards Jaroslaw to endeavour to draw King Augustus to an Engagement. Some Letters from the Frontiers say, that General Renschild is marching towards Cracow, and General Steinbock towards Samosch, each with a Detachment of Swedish Troops. Mean time King Augustus is advantageously posted at Siniawa which lies within 4 Leagues of Jaroslaw, with his Army which consists of 5000 Saxons, 10000 Muscovites, 15000 Poles, and 4000 Cossacks: And seems resolv'd to stand the Swede.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Sept. 6.
Dresden, August 29. We have receiv'd confirm'd Advice that 5000 Saxons and 3000 Poles have routed a Body of 4000 Swedes commanded by Gen. Meyerfeld near Pofna (or Posen;) with these particulars, That our right Wing was put into Disorder by the Cannon of the Swedes; who falling on and driving that Wing before them, our Left took that opportunity to charge them in Flank and Rear, and totally broke and defeated them. We have Advice likewise, that there is Hopes the upper General of the Army of the Crown, and his Son, will declare for King Augustus; and that the Pope has sent a Brief to his Nuncio, authorizing him to allow [K. Augustus the Tenth] of all Church Revenues in Poland for 2 Years; The Cardinal Primate is cited to make his Appearance at Rome within the Term of three Months; and both He and all the other Bishops in Poland are warn'd not to crown Stanislaus King, on Pain of being depriv'd of their Benefices. Letters from King Augustus's Army of the 11th tell us, several Polish Noblemen are come over to his Majesty.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Sept. 9.
Warsaw, August 22. On Intelligence that some Saxon Troops were drawing towards the Lands of the Cardinal Primate, 12 of the Troops of the Army of the Crown that are for King Stanislaus, were immediately sent thither. The Great Chamberlain of the Crown, and the Quarter-Master General of the Army, are march'd towards Great Poland with the Polish Troops they brought some time ago into our Neighbourhood; and the new King follow'd them yesterday, with his Ministers and Guards. The last Letters from Russia say, that the King of Sweden is with his Army at Sunau; that King Augustus is near Sekal with his; that General Brand is posted with a Detachment some Leagues on this side Sekal to watch the Motions of the Swedes; That his Polish Majesty has taken the Command of the Saxon Troops from General Steinau, and given it to General Schuylenburg; and that his Majesty's Party grows stronger daily.
